Department of Human Services Asks all Senior Citizens to Sign up for the Emergency Assistance Senior Registry

(US Virgin Islands) The Department of Human Services (DHS), the Bureau of Motor Vehicles and the Virgin Islands Elections System, according to ACT NO. 805, hereby notifies the public that all persons 60 years and older and persons with disabilities who live alone, are invited to enter their names into an Elder, Dependent, Adult and Disabled Person Disaster Emergency Assistance Registry with one of the respective entities above. Doing so will allow the Department of Human Services to contact the individual and provide assistance and support in the event of a manmade or natural disaster.

To Register:

Please stop by the Department of Human Services, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles and the Virgin Islands Elections System to fill out the registry form or simply call one of the DHS offices to provide your information and have the form filled out for you.

- St. Thomas - Department of Human Services Knud Hansen Building - Phone: (340)774-0930 x 4109
- St. John - Department of Human Services Cruz Bay - Phone: (340)776-6334
